KEY VERSE

SYNOPSIS:

Paul wrote this letter to the church in Ephesus while he was in prison. He gives general instruction in the truths of the redemptive work of God in Christ. He emphasizes the importance of unity among diverse people. He instructs them on the proper conduct in the church, the home, and the world. He emphasizes that the mark of the Savior on their lives should be unity and love in the bond of peace partnered with a grateful response to free grace.
