

NAVIGATING THE
In Between

1. As we navigate the “in between,” God’s plans are not always _____ .

NAVIGATING THE
In Between

2. Though we can't see at the time, God's plans for us are for our ultimate _____ and personal _____ .

Exodus 13:17

When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country, though that was shorter. For God said, "If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt."

