1 CHRONICLES 17:11-14

When your days are over and you go to be with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever. I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor. I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne will be established forever.”

SYNOPSIS:

This book was written shortly after Israel had been exiled. They were away from their homeland surrounded by new cultures and religions and customs. This book was written as a supplement to the books of 1 and 2 Samuel and 1 and 2 Kings. Many of the historical descriptions are similar in all of the books. But its focus on David and God's covenant with him was a reminder that they had been promised an eternal kingdom.
