

On Mission: A Community of Unfinished People

Questions

1. Let's read Phillippians 1:3-6 out loud together as a group!
2. What is ONE thing that sticks out to you from this passage of scripture?
3. When you hear the words, "go and make disciples", what does that mean to you? What does that look like to you?
4. When you hear the words, "a community of unfinished people", what first comes to mind?
5. What does it look like to, "be a community that shares life AND the gospel together"? What could this look like for you personally?
6. Shaen shared, "Sharing your life with other people and doing life together isn't uniquely Christian until it's tied to the gospel and our faith in Jesus". How does this statement challenge you?
7. What fears, concerns, excitement, or joy come to mind when you think about joining and doing life with a small group?
8. How might FCOG look different if we were truly a community that shared life AND the gospel together?
9. Read Phillippians 1:6...what encouragement can we glean from these confident words of Paul?
10. Does anyone have any prayer requests for this upcoming week? Pray for the folks who share!